StoreNext Road Show — Spring 2003

Issue 2
April 25, 2003

Note: this Issue 2 moves the dates of the West sessions to June 9 — June 10.

StoreNext is taking our show on the road — to a location near you (or at least nearer to you than usual). The focus will be on the business strategy, sales opportunities, capabilities, features, selling information and demonstration tools available to make the most of StoreNext's new RBO and Connected Services offerings — and the latest information and roadmaps for these powerful products.

We'll be doing three sessions in late May and early June, so please set the most convenient dates and locations aside and attend if at all possible. Feel free to bring as many of your management and selling staff as you can fit in the minivan. As always, your Support people are welcome, but be aware that these sessions are all about sales: dealing, marketing, selling strategy, promotion, upgrading, moving product and making money. StoreNext is bringing our best experts, so you'll be able to get personal.

Session Title	Location	Dates
StoreNext Spring 2003 Road Show — East	Warrendale PA (near Pittsburgh)	May 28 — May 29
StoreNext Spring 2003 Road Show — Midwest	Schaumburg, IL (near Chicago)	June 3 — June 4
StoreNext Spring 2003 Road Show — West	Sunnyvale, CA (near San Jose)	June 9 — June 10

The first day's sessions will start at 11:00 a.m. so you can drive in and avoid a hotel night if possible. The second day will start with a continental breakfast at 8:00 with the sessions beginning at 9:00, and they'll end mid-afternoon to enable late afternoon flights or hitting the road before rush hour.

Please don't wait: Just click here to RSVP now with the number of people coming from your company — there's no charge, but we don't want to run out of food.

The following pages provide travel information and links. We hope to be able to get together with every Dealer salesperson and we look forward to seeing you all at the shows.

To Your Success,

Tony
