TeamPoS 2000 Terminal Retired

April 9, 2008

Fujitsu has ceased production of the TeamPoS 2000 terminal, and it has therefore been withdrawn at StoreNext. At this writing, there are none available for sale or shipment.

All packages that included the TeamPoS 2000 are also retired, with the TeamPoS 3000 packages taking their place.

This withdrawal covers the TeamPoS 2000 terminal "slice" unit itself. However, many TeamPoS 2000 components continue to be available, including peripherals sold with the TeamPoS 2000.

If you need TeamPoS 2000 components listed in the TeamPoS 2000 reference bulletin that are not currently used with the TeamPoS 3000, please contact StoreNext Order Entry to check for stock or a recommendation for an appropriate substitute product.

On this occasion, StoreNext would like to thank TeamPoS 2000 for its many years of extraordinary service and remarkable reliability, almost never taking a sick day. Although to mark the occasion, a gold watch that would fit could not be located, we are sure "TP2" will enjoy our commemorative gift of 24k solid gold connectors for many years to come.

To Your Success,

Anthony van Sevelter
