

Update Bulletin

StoreNext Business Council Election Ballot

September 1, 2004

Thanks to all for the nominations and volunteers for the StoreNext Business Council. As you likely recall, StoreNext's Business Council is growing to a total of six Dealer-elected members. Three members from the 2003/2004 Council (George Brady, David Fuller and Terry Woods) will continue to serve a second year, while three new members will be elected from the list below to start a new two-year term.

Business and growth pressures in a few dealerships caused nominated principals to decline their nominations in this particular election. Also, since "...no more than one principal from a Dealership or Dealership group ... may serve at one time..." some excellent nominees are not currently eligible since their company is already represented on the Council. This is the reason why not all individuals who were nominated appear on the final ballot below.

Dealer Principals only – please select three of the names below and email me with your voting selections. Again, each principal may vote for up to three.

The top three total vote-getters will be elected to a new two-year term. You may want to take another look at the recent Update Bulletin if you want to clarify this or other terms or conditions of the Council.

Here are the nominee names in alphabetical order.

- Ron Allnock – RCS (Pittsburgh)
- Phil McCarthy – Dumac (Syracuse NY)
- Stan Gilbertson – DTO (OKC OK)
- Rudy Long – SSI (Baton Rouge LA)
- Hicks Pigford – Computer World (North Carolina)
- Gary Pollastro – In-Store Tech (Seattle)
- Bill Tilson – RMS (California)
- David Ziletti Jr. – CCR (Virginia)

Please have your three selections in to me by Friday September 10 – thanks.

To Your Success,

Tony
