

Update Bulletin

Fujitsu TeamPoS 3000 XL Withdrawn from Sale

May 5, 2010

Fujitsu has notified StoreNext that the TeamPoS 3000 XL is no longer available for shipment. StoreNext has been told that there is no stock available beyond the orders currently in-house. StoreNext will contact any dealers with orders requiring changes.

Since September, StoreNext has offered only the lowest-cost version of the TeamPoS 3000 XL with the Celeron M 1.3 (453XL/SU1B). The March 12 release of the TeamPoS 3000 Configuration and Pricing bulletin provided notice that this 1.3 version was in short supply.

The replacement product is the TeamPoS 3000 XL2. The 2.0 version (453XL/SU4B) is priced only 3% higher than the XL 1.3 but delivers substantially higher performance.
