Pat Huston — Welcome Back

November 6, 2000

It is with the greatest pleasure that Fujitsu-ICL announces that Pat Huston will be rejoining the ISS45 Dealer team.

Pat, of course, is one of the original ISS45 sales team, and has been with Fujitsu-ICL for many years in positions of increasing responsibility and authority. Pat and his Dealer groups own most of the regional monthly and quarterly sales records going back decades.

“It’s really the people,” Pat said. “Yeah, the new products are great — 7.7 finally got done and, and the TeamPoS 2000 looks just outstanding — but what I really missed was getting out there with all the business friends I’d been working with for the past few years. It feels great to be coming back.”

Pat will take up his Western Region Sales position— and some new responsibilities soon to be announced — on Monday November 13. From my own viewpoint, if Fujitsu-ICL has hired 100 people in the past quarter, I’m just awfully glad they made it 101.

To Your Success,

Tony
