

Update Bulletin

Fujitsu Hardware Demonstration Equipment

October 19, 2009

StoreNext now offers a 50% discount against list price for Fujitsu TeamPoS terminals and its peripherals such as Fujitsu cash drawers, Fujitsu displays and Fujitsu printers (including the DT-50 which is manufactured by Epson).

Software and platform items – such as PCs, flat-panel displays and Microsoft products – are not included in the offer. Application software is not included.

To qualify, this equipment must be used exclusively for the dealer's own labs, showrooms and demonstration setups. The equipment may not be sold until that item has been withdrawn.

The order to StoreNext Order Entry needs to specify that the 50% discount is due to the demo program. StoreNext reserves the right to decline demo orders when circumstances warrant.

To Your Success,

Anthony van Seester
