

Update Bulletin

StoreNext Business Council Election Ballot

September 28, 2005

StoreNext thanks the dealer principals for your nominations and volunteers for the StoreNext Business Council. As you likely recall, StoreNext's Business Council has grown to a total of six Dealer-elected members. Four members from the 2004/2005 Council (Bob Bauer, Phil McCarthy, Gary Pollastro and Bill Tilson) will continue to serve their second year, while members will be elected or re-elected from the list below to start a new two-year term.

We would like to thank George Brady for his many contributions to the Business Council since its inauguration. Nominated again by several dealers, George has nevertheless declined for another two-year term.

Dealer Principals only — please select three of the names below and email me with your voting selections. Again, each principal may vote for up to three. Please note that no more than one principal from a Dealership or Dealership group may serve simultaneously – in such cases, the candidate with the highest total from that company will be the only one elected.

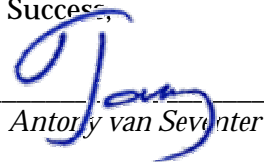

The top three total vote-getters will be elected to a new two-year term. You may want to take another look at the recent Update Bulletin if you want to clarify this or other terms or conditions of the Council.

Here are the nominee names in alphabetical order.

- Lou Balderrama— American POS (Tucson, Arizona)
- Drew Clausen — RDS of the Ohio Valley (Columbus, Indiana)
- Les Farrance — Cash Register Sales and Service (Kalamazoo, Michigan)
- David Fuller — Cash Register Services (Lubbock, Texas)
- Dirk Horton — Purser Associates (Salt Lake City, Utah)
- Lane Osbon — Total Retail Solutions (Monroe, Louisiana)
- Perry Potter — RDS of Kansas City (Kansas City, Kansas)
- Bob Seider — Data Systems Inc. (Omaha, Nebraska)
- Terry Woods — Cash Register Systems (Montgomery, Alabama)

Please email your three selections to me by Wednesday October 5 — thanks!

To Your Success,

Antony van Seventer
